

I should already know:

The names of the main characters in the Christmas story.

That the Christmas story is found in the Gospels.

That the Christmas story is the Incarnation part of the Bible's Big Story.

That light is an important symbol for Christians at Christmas time.

That advent is the countdown to Christmas and is the start of the Christian year.

By the end of this unit I will know:

Who the main people are in the Christmas story and why they are significant.

That peace can be external and internal, what they mean and how they are linked.

That another name for Jesus is the Prince of Peace and what this meant for Christians.

That there are many references to Jesus' message of peace in the gospels.

That Jesus' message of peace is still important today.
