

I should already know:

That there are six main world religions, Islam is one of them.

That different religions have different Holy Books.

That different religions use symbols and stories to help them explain ideas.

They all have places of worship and celebrate festivals.

By the end of this unit I will know:

Muslims believe there is one God and that Muhammed (pbuh) is his messenger.

The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims.

Prayer is important to a Muslims daily life. It takes place five times a day.

Muslims often use prayer mats to give a clean place to pray.

Muslims face the Ka'bah in Makkah when praying.
