I should already know:

That Sikhism is one of the six world religions

Know how Sikhism developed with each Guru.

Know what Sikh practices today are influenced by the teaching of the Gurus.

Know that the Guru Sahib is the 11th living Guru

Know the importance of equality inn Sikhism.

By the end of this unit I will:

Know and remember Sikhism developed with each Guru

Know and remember Sikh practices today are influenced by the teachings of the Gurus

Know and remember the Guru Granth Sahib is the 11th Guru

Know and remember the importance of equality in Sikhism

The circle reminds them that God is one, without beginning or end

Piri – one sword represents spiritual power

The Khanda is the double-edged sword. A double-edged sword represents the ability of truth to cut through illusion and ignorance.

Miri – one sword represents temporal power

Key Vocabulary
Kesh	Uncut hair, a symbol of dedication to God. Sikhs believe God has given them their hair, They do not cut it to show their respect to God.
Kangha	Comb- a symbol of cleanliness and discipline. As well as keeping their hair clean and tidy the Kangha reminds Sikhs to keep their souls clean and honest.
Kara	Steel band worn on the right wrist- a symbol of God's eternity, , strength and unity. It can also be used to defend oneself.
Kachera	Shorts- a symbol of modesty and readiness for action. Guru Gobind Singh wanted members of the Khalsa to be disciplined and ready to defend others.
Khanda	Double edged sword
Kirpan	Sword- a symbol of a willingness to defend truth and justice. It reminds Sikhs to look out for the rights of others and to look to God for freedom.
Miri	Earthly power
Nishan Sahib	The flag that is flown outside a gurdwara.
Piri	Spiritual power
Karah Parsad	Sweet food shared at the Gurdwara
Kirtan Sohila	Evening prayer, read at funerals and when the Guru Granth Sahib is laid to rest.