

I should already know:

That there are core concepts in the Bible (including Kingdom).

That there are ceremonies and festivals as part of the Christian life.

That the Liturgy is a sacrament that Christians take part in regularly as part of worship, with set words and actions.

That belief in God affects the actions of a Christian.

Who Jesus is and how his actions at Easter changed the way Christians talked to God and how prayer become even more important.

That the Bible is a guide for living for a Christian, particularly the New Testament.

By the end of this unit I will:

Be able to identify milestones that are universal to all humans (religious and secular).

Know what baptism means and the difference between an infant and a believer's baptism.

Know and understand what the sacrament of confirmation is and what difference being confirmed makes to a believer's life.

Understand the meaning of a Christian marriage and know the difference between a Christian and secular marriage.

Understand what a Christian's understanding of eternal life is and know what a Christian funeral consists of.
