

I should already know:

Muslims believe there is one god and that Muhammed is his messenger.

The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims.

Prayer is important to a Muslims daily life. It takes place five times a day.

Muslims often use prayer mats to pray to give a clean place to pray.

Muslims face the Ka 'bah in Makkah when praying.

Know what commitment means in Islam.

Know and remember the five pillars of Islam.
 Religious duties that are required of every Muslim
 The Shahadah – Call to faith,
 Salat – The role of prayer in a Muslim's life,
 Sawm – Call to fasting, Zakat – Giving to charity,
 Hajj – The importance of pilgrimage.

Understand how a Muslim shows commitment to God (Allah) and draw closer to him through the five pillars

By the end of this unit I will:

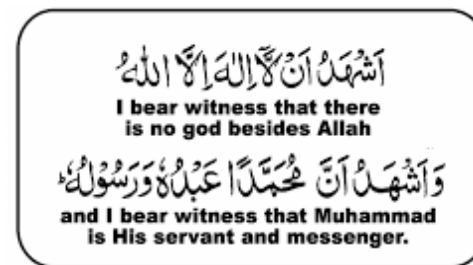

Know the significance of the Shahadah and zakat to a Muslim's life and their way of thinking

Know that how a Muslim expresses their faith will be different for each individual, there is diversity within Islam

Consider and apply ideas about what I think diverse communities need to live together for the well-being of all
