Key Vocabulary

Online bullying	(Cyberbullying): deliberate, typically repeated or extreme harassment conducted via the Internet or other network technologies
Blog	A website consisting of short articles, presented in reverse date order, typically inviting responses
Reliable	A source that can be trusted, based on authority, expertise or experience
Plausible	An argument or story that is likely or probable, one that many might believe
Neutral point of view	A balanced perspective where all sides of an argument are presented fairly
Fake news	A fictional, or partly fictional, story presented as news
Social media	Websites and apps that allow users to create and share content or to participate in conversations with one or more other users

By the end of the unit, I will:

Know about appropriate rules or guidelines for a civil online discussion

How search results are selected and ranked

How to argue my point effectively, supporting my views with sources

How to judge the reliability of an online source

Some strategies for dealing with online bullying.

Questions I will be able to answer by the end of the unit:

Why is respect and tolerance important in online discussions?

How are search results selected and ranked?

Is a source credible?

What should I do if I am being bullied online?
